"While you're getting ready for a roasting hot Christmas, don't forget the little children of the poor. They ought to come in on such a holiday, if the real meaning of Christmas is to be illustrated."

Christmas Goods, of every variety, style, cost and description, to suit all purchasers.

The luncheon and art sale exhibition on Monday last, by the ladies of the Baptist church, was, in the face of the raw and most unpromising weather, a great success. They sold everything they had for sale, and that means as much success as could have been expected. Everything was nice, elegant and enjoyable.

A nice, fresh supply of staples and Fancy Groceries just received at H. C. ANDERSON'S.

Mrs. Marion Dillon, wife of Thomas Dillon, Jr., who was long afflicted with that dread disease, consumption, died, Sunday morning last and was buried Monday evening. She had been a member of a true Christian woman, and died in the blessed assurance of that faith. The bereaved husband and relatives have the honest sympathy of all good people.

Power's Butane Block—first-class brick building in every particular—the most prominent corner in Hickman, fronting on a first-class business room and hotel, fairly well furnished, all up-to-date. Also, good machinery and implement warehouse close by, convenient. We request the most desirable business property in the city.

Twenty acres of land adjoining corporation line in West Hickman, fronting on river.

Desirable corner lot in West Hickman, the old mill corner.

Hickman Roller Flouring Mill. No mill makes finer flour than this mill. It is of latest improved mill machinery, very popular. Cotton gin and saw attached. May consider it the best property in Hickman.

Count of the lot did not see the front and back driveways in West Hickman—will change considered. In right of highway, 250 acres, all under fence, quality of land can't be beat, probably in the State—convenient residence, first class outbuildings on two public highways, with railroad running along one side of farm, and in sight of and convenient to the city. A more healthy, convenient location and desirable farm, well located in West Hickman. It is completely supplied with all necessary farm machinery, implements and work stock. Higher 200 acres needed to wheat. For further particulars, apply to J. W. McWELL, Hickman, Ky.
